

661—11.1(17A,690,692) Identification section. The identification section maintains information necessary to identify persons with criminal histories. It collects, files and disseminates criminal history data to authorized criminal justice agencies and the public upon request and updates criminal history records as a continual process.